

Cathy Greteman
Chairman and CEO
National Tour Association

Cathy Greteman has been in the travel industry since 1985. Her tour company, Star Destinations, has been an NTA member since 2000, and she has been active in the NTA leadership for several years. She currently serves on the NTA Board of Directors as the vice chairman.

Cathy started Star Destinations as a tour company dedicated to the affinity travel market working with corporate, college and school groups, senior clubs and family groups focusing on offering unique travel experiences. In 1995 she added a motorcoach division that is growing successfully with her three sons at the helm. Today, Star Destinations remains focused on experiential travel, specializing in motorcoach programs and Iowa inbound receptive services.

Cathy works tirelessly on community projects and enjoys spending time with her husband, children and nine grandchildren.
