CONVENTION'09

GIVE YOUR BUDGETS A BREAK AT NTA CONVENTION '09!

You've told us what you want from a convention and NTA has heard you loud and clear. What has resulted is an NTA Convention coming up in Reno that meets all of your needs. Check it out:

IT'S STREAMLINED

For a tour supplier, if you come only for your prescheduled appointments, you can arrive on Monday morning and spend three days out of the office. Come for the full day on Monday, and you can participate in appointment scheduling and the open destination shopping that morning.

While there is still an open floor and lots of business to be done during the full week, the schedule is designed to maximize your time out of the office and minimize costs!

IT'S AFFORDABLE

When was the last time you attended a conference and saw double-digit hotel rates? NTA and our Reno hotel partners are offering you the most affordable rates, starting as low as $58 per night, to ensure that you don't miss out on all of the business that will be happening.

How amazing is this ... if you're a supplier planning to attend Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, your hotel costs would range from $174 to $228! Stay the whole week for between $320 and $415.

Plus, for suppliers who register by the early-bird deadline of June 16, your registration fee of $1,090 will be the same as 2008!

IT'S EFFECTIVE

Suppliers now have 10-minute prescheduled appointments in the Tour & Travel Exchange with an added prescheduled session—supplier requests only—that are five-minutes. Additionally, you have the value of NTA's patented open floor, educational sessions, lunches and evening networking events almost every night. It's the most effective way of reaching tour operators and growing your business available.
